

44 YEARS WED

ANNIVERSARY OF MARRIAGE OF MR. AND MRS. CRANE CELEBRATED BY THEIR CHILDREN

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. John Crane of South Glendale avenue arranged a delightful celebration of their forty-fourth wedding anniversary which took the form of a dancing party Saturday evening at Yeomen Hall on San Fernando Road. Mr. and Mrs. Crane are just as light of foot and just as fond of tripping the light fantastic toe as ever they were and enjoyed it to the limit, barring a painful injury which Mrs. Crane suffered Friday when canning Satsuma plums. She had the misfortune Friday afternoon to have a pan of scalding fruit upset and poured over her arm, burning it from wrist to elbow. A doctor was at once called who dressed the burns which were found to be comparatively superficial and so the party went on. The relatives who acted as hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bruck, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weldon of Los Angeles, their daughter Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crane. About thirty-five were present, the guest list including intimate friends of the celebrants. The hall and refreshment tables were beautifully decorated with asparagus fern and pink and white carnations and music for the dancing was furnished by two grandchildren of the guests of honor, viz., Mrs. Reynolds and Herbert Bruck. At the conclusion of the dance program a light supper was served, the anniversary cake which centered the bridal table being cut by the honorees.

A pleasant bit of news which reached Mr. and Mrs. Crane on their anniversary was contained in a telegram from a son in the east announcing the arrival of a ten-pound daughter, his second child who came to his home when his son was sixteen years of age. The little girl is naturally very welcome both as a daughter and grand-daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Crane were the recipients of some very nice gifts and the event was one they will long remember with pleasure.

WHY COFFEE PRICES SOAR

Primarily the present high price of coffee which has had no counterpart in more than 30 years, is attributable to damage to the Brazilian Santos crop by a frost, unprecedentedly heavy for such an early date, that occurred in June last year. That the damage was serious admits of no doubt, as it has been attested by many responsible witnesses. As to the extent of the damage estimates vary widely, but it is admitted by the more conservative that it will cut down the crop now coming on the market to about 4,500,000 bags, against 7,360,000 in 1918-19 season and 12,170,000 bags in 1917-18.

WONDERFUL TRIP

MESSRS. AND MESDAMES WEBSTER, BETZ HAVE STRENUOUS BUT PLEASANT EXPERIENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Webster of 215 West Park avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Betz of 424 North Kenwood returned Saturday noon from a two weeks' auto and camping trip to the high Sierras above Bishop. While it was a wonderful experience which none of the party regrets, Mr. Webster says in view of the grades and the rough, rocky roads it is too hard a trip for a two weeks' outing, especially for women; but all are hoping to go again when they can take more time to enjoy it. Their itinerary led them from Bishop through Long Valley to Grant and Silver Lake, Rush Creek, Mono and Mammoth Lakes.

This side of the divide the fishing was very poor, but in Grant and Mono Lakes it was good, also in Rush Creek which flows between Grant and Silver Lake. That is as far as one can go with an auto. If you want to take in the country beyond for fishing or hunting you must hike and pack in. Gull Lake is three miles further on and Summit Lake seven miles more.

They made no effort to hunt and saw no deer except a couple of does at Elizabeth Lake, where they camped on their return trip. As Mr. Webster explained, the east side of the coast range is practically devoid of timber and there is no forage for deer. Being a dry year, conditions are worse than usual and the deer have been driven further back. That there are large droves of them he knows because on the return trip they met his nephew who has charge of a power station on Cottonwood

AUCTION SHOWER

MISS LOIS DUNCAN AND JOHN CATE SURPRISED AT HOME OF DR. AND MRS. RICHARDSON

Miss Lois Duncan and her fiancé, John Cate, were the very greatly surprised guests of honor at a pretty affair given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Richardson, at 1856 S. Brand boulevard Friday evening at which the pretty young woman, so soon to become a bride, was showered by Sunday School teachers, officials and the trustees of the Tropic Presbyterian Church and a few outside friends. The company gathered at the church and at 8:30 went in a body to the Richardson home where Miss Duncan, the members of her family and Mr. Cate had been invited to spend the evening. After an informal, social evening of games and fun the gifts brought by the guests were auctioned off by E. H. Fry, who eloquently set forth the beauties of the articles which he imagined the packages contained, assigning them to the successful bidders who paid for them with imaginary money provided by Dr. Richardson. Each gift was then bestowed upon the honoree. Miss Duncan is greatly beloved in the church and the many pretty and useful gifts she received were sincere tributes to her popularity. After she had opened the packages and their contents had been inspected and admired by the forty or more friends present, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Richardson who is a charming hostess with a beautiful home well adapted to such functions. Such a good time did the merry-makers have that they did not get home until one o'clock in the morning. The marriage of Miss Duncan and Mr. Cate is to take place September 3d.

Guests who participated in the pleasant affair besides Dr. and Mrs. Richardson were: Messrs. and Mesdames Allan Adams, H. E. Fry, W. H. Hillman, Clair Van Etten, Frank Ashton, Carroll Angier, Stewart Richardson, Miss Harrison, Mrs. Jennison, Mrs. W. R. Alexander, Mrs. Ida Lanterman, Miss Harriet Myers, Miss Ida Myers, Misses Tirzah, Phebe and Sara-Fay Snell, Misses Mary and Nancy St. Clair, Miss Dorothy Hobbs, Mrs. Noble Ripley, Dr. A. M. Duncan, Miss Carol Duncan, Miss Lois Duncan and John T. Cate.

MILLIGANS AGAIN BEREAVED

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Milligan, of 114 East Park avenue, have just received the sad news that their little grandson, James Robert Cate, of Kansas City, died August 25th at the age of ten months. Mrs. O. M. Carpenter, daughter of Mrs. Milligan, intends going east to Kansas City as soon as the trains are again running. Mrs. Cate's father, Mr. Hossman, son-in-law of the Milligans, died last December, and their daughter, Mrs. William Funk, of Kansas City, in February. This is therefore the third death in the family within eight months.

MRS. FLORENCE S. LAPPIN WRITES OF CLIMATE, WAGES AND PRICES IN PORTLAND

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lappin, who conducted the French Dry Cleaning establishment in this city for a time, will be glad to have the news from them contained in the following letter:

Portland, Oregon,
Aug. 20, 1919.
Editor of Glendale News,
Glendale, Cal.

If you will be so kind I will drop my old friends a line through your paper.

I had planned for almost a year on a trip to Portland, but after taking over our place in Anaheim, we were so busy for a while that I had almost given it up. But to my surprise on July 29th, the opportunity knocked at my door in the shape of this trip and I promptly grasped it.

Mr. Lappin has taken in as a partner Lieutenant Cole, of the Canadian Steam line workers are handling the regular business that is not coming from Pacific Electric lines.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—If Railroad Director General Hines waits for a report from Hale Holden before he acts in the Los Angeles strike, no immediate action can be expected, as Holden is away on a vacation.

LIFE IN ENGLAND

AMERICAN ESTABLISHED IN LONDON WRITES OF ECONOMIC CONDITIONS THERE

A letter received by a member of the Evening News staff from a friend who is conducting a business in London, conveys some interesting impressions of present conditions in England, from which the following statements are quoted:

"I have been here five weeks now and I have been warm enough about three hours out of the whole time. They claim it is unusual weather for July, but the truth is it is nearly always cold here in the summer. I am wearing my flannels and some days I put on woolen stockings. Can you imagine it?"

"Everything is very unsettled in England and the things you read in the American newspapers about their having prepared for peace while the war was still going on, are pure bunk. They were not prepared any more than we were and are not prepared now. They are paying what they call the 'unemployment dole' to a lot of people and while they continue paying that of course a lot of people will continue idle. The women munitions workers are nearly all of them getting this pay. They say the government is doing this to prevent the spread of Bolshevism. If they think they are stopping Bolshevism by this means they are mistaken for labor gets more restless and dissatisfied every day. They are anticipating even worse trouble and I should not be surprised at anything. The manufacturers are many of them working at half capacity and there are strikes all the time. Lancashire is tied up and has been for weeks and there is enormous need of all sorts of cotton fabrics. They make concessions to the workers all the time and they come back asking for still more.

"There is a shortage of nearly everything that people require for a normal existence, beginning with houses and flats. Butter, sugar and meat are still rationed. You do not see butter in the boarding houses or restaurants, only margarine. I have a food coupon book now, having obtained it on the plea of delicate health and I buy extra butter, but can only get two ounces at a time and that is the supply allowed for a week. Bare living costs me nearly $20 a week, and with it all I am not a bit comfortable and the food is awful. The food purveyors are taking advantage of the situation to make all the money they can and the public are paying these profits both in money and in impaired health.

"I find the English people very much changed. The war lasted too long and they have suffered too much. They are less polite, less considerate of others, more grasping and selfish. The old, easy-going temper they used to have is a thing of the past. Members of the working class are feeling their power and are insolent. I have heard things said by the employees in a London shop that you would not hear even in America. They used to be too obsequious. Now they go too far the other way. The next cabinet in England is almost sure to be a labor cabinet. Socialist ideas are rampant here and they are held not only by the workers but by many of the upper class as well. In some ways they are miles ahead of us; they grew so fast in those terrible years."

TIMELY ADMONITIONS

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST PASTORS AT CAMP METING UPTER WORDS OF WISDOM

Neglect of family worship, failure to take time for Bible study, indulgence in novel reading and the perusal of fiction, to say nothing of grosser evils, are sapping the spiritual life of professing Christians, causing them to backslide and eventually to surrender even a pretense of following Christ, according to Elder F. C. Gilbert, who before a large audience at the Seventh-day Adventist camp-meeting, now in session at Western and Melrose avenues, L. A., emphasized the importance of faithfully following the Man of Galilee.

"Upon arising in the morning our first thoughts should be of God," said Elder Gilbert. "We should take time to commune with Him. The father, or in the absence of the father, the mother, should gather the family together, should read to them from the sacred Volume, unitedly they should pray to God for His protection and care through the day, and for strength to live the Christ life."

"So many young people read stories that make their minds like sieves, unable to retain anything they read or study. They race through exciting fiction, but neglect the Bible."

AGAIN THE QUESTION

REV. BERT SHAW ALSO DISCUSSES QUERY, 'HAS THE CHURCH FAILED?'

A few weeks ago Rev. J. H. Mohr of St. Louis, Secretary of the National Benevolent Association, spoke in Central Christian Church on the oft-heard question, "Has the church failed after nearly 20 centuries," in view of the world war. Quite singularly Rev. Bert Shaw in the same pulpit, discussed the same question yesterday, though from a different angle. He read the latter part of the 21st chapter of John's gospel, where Jesus three times puts the question, "Simon, son of John, lovest thou Me?" The speaker said that Peter, who had so frequently and boldly declared he would stand for the Master though all others forsake Him, had shown his weakness and instability, his preference for the things of the world, so now the Master puts the question squarely up to him in view of His early departure to be with His Father, as to whether Peter, chosen to hold the keys of the new kingdom, could devote his whole soul and time to the great cause and turn his back on all things worldly. History shows that Peter nobly stood the test. But will the church today be as staunch as was Peter then? The business world, particularly the forces of evil as represented by the brewing and cigarette interests, are pouring their millions into China to corrupt her people and bind them to worldly things and evil habits, yet Christianity merely doles out a few pennies, in comparison, to present to a perishing people the gospel that means eternal life. China has one-fourth of all the people of this earth and is a nation to be reckoned with, for good or evil. The Rockefeller Foundation is spending $50,000,000 establishing hospitals in China, which is a great movement for good, but in connection with it there should be Christian instruction.

Turning to Mexico the speaker said that if one-half the money spent in punitive expeditions and ransoms the past year had been spent in sending Christian educators and Christian missionaries there, during the 25 years just past, our neighbor on the south would now be entitled to a place in the family of nations instead of being a virtual outlaw. There is power in the religion of Jesus Christ, if put into practical working, to right every wrong. No, the Christian religion.

FUNERAL OF EARL F. ARCHER

A large company of sincere mourners came out to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of Earl Francis Archer, whose body was placed in its last resting place in Forest Lawn Memorial Park Saturday afternoon. The services were held in the Little Church of the Flowers and were conducted by Roy W. Masters, and his fellow officers in Unity Lodge, No. 368, F. and A. M., of which the doctor had been a member. Dr. R. Dungan, now eighty-three years of age, formerly connected with Drake University, Iowa, where Dr. and Mrs. Archer and Mrs. Warren Roberts were graduated, was present and paid a tender, eloquent tribute to the beautiful character of the dead. Dr. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Glendale, also participated in the services. Mrs. J. D. Cole sang most beautifully the favorite hymn of Dr. Archer "Lead Kindly Light," also "Shadows," and at the final services at the grave the touching "Good-night," Miss Florence Heacock furnishing the accompaniment. The pall bearers were: Messrs. E. U. Emery, R. M. Grumblin, E. R. Naudain, David Crofton, Dr. A. L. Bryant and Walter Ross, all Masons except the last named, who was a close friend of the deceased.

A wealth of floral tributes of wonderful beauty was banked around the casket on which was placed a very beautiful spray of long-stemmed red roses, the tribute of the immediate family.

TO NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT

Mrs. Paul C. Mason, 625 North Maryland, and her son Lloyd plan to leave Monday, September 1st, for the National Encampment at Columbus, Ohio. They will go by way of Salt Lake, Denver and St. Louis and will be gone about two months visiting in the interval brothers and sisters of Mrs. Mason at Terre Haute and Brazil, Ind., and then going to Appleton City, Mo., where her parents reside. The Masons have already purchased tickets and are closely watching the strike news to find out whether they will be allowed to go or will have to get the money they have paid refunded.

FAR-REACHING EFFECTS OF STRIKE

It is stated that nearly $300,000 worth of fruit is rotting in the railroad yards of Los Angeles and other cities, due to the strike and that canneries are seriously embarrassed by lack of fruit to work on. If the strike continues the canneries must close, throwing thousands out of work, thus working a great hardship on them. Then the curtailment of the cannery output will cause still higher prices for canned goods.

gion has not failed, though many of its professed followers have. The teachings of the Christ have the same power and authority today as when they were given, and if His professing followers would show their faith by lives of earnest, continuous effort instead of striving to please themselves, the world would soon be won. Rev. Shaw was in China for 12 years as a missionary and on his return home four years ago took work with the Men and Millions movement, which he has just closed. He has two brothers who are preachers, Shirley and Leon Shaw, both of whom are well known to a number of Glendale people.

At the close of the service, Chas. J. Eubanks, wife, son and two daughters, who moved to Eagle Rock from South Los Angeles last week, put in their membership. They had been connected with the University Church. The three Endeavorer Societies held their regular meetings from 7 to 8 p. m., but there was no preaching service.

We Vouch for Them

Of all the tires that are made, —why do you suppose we prefer to sell United States Tires?

Because they are made by the biggest rubber company in the world. And they know how to build good tires.

They have choice of materials,—they have immense facilities,—they employ many exclusive methods.

They can go to greater lengths in testing, improving and perfecting the things that make good tires.

We find it good business to sell United States Tires.

And—you will find it good business to buy them. They are here—a tire for every need.

United States Tires are Good Tires

We know United States Tires are good tires. That's why we sell them.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Cleveland and son, Harold, of San Fernando, spent Sunday in Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kent and family have returned from an outing of several days at Balboa Beach.

Mrs. R. L. McCalla and her two children of Los Angeles are visiting Mrs. I. H. Durfee, mother of Mrs. McCalla.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ashton and family of 345 West Cerritos avenue have returned from an outing at Laguna Beach.

A. P. McDonnell and wife and son Andrew enjoyed an auto trip up above Santa Barbara with a party of friends last week.

Jack Hammond of East Cypress avenue is planning to go east the early days of September if the strikers will let the trains run.

Dr. I. H. Durfee of 208 South Brand started last Wednesday to Cleveland, Ohio, to visit relatives and old-time friends for a few weeks.

A. L. Lawshe is moving his household goods today to the ranch near Monrovia which he and his son-in-law, H. W. Evans, recently purchased.

Tonight members of the Glendale Christian Endeavor Union will meet at the home of Rev. W. E. Edmonds to make plans for the work of the Union in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Townsend and family of North Brand boulevard who have been spending the month of August at Catalina, are expected home the first of September.

Bob Freeman, manager of Chaffee's Grocery, is on the job again after his two weeks' vacation. He and his wife and daughter spent one week at Catalina and one at San Diego and Laguna Beach.

Ed Martner, of 1329 East California, will resign his position at the City Hall the last of this week and close out his stock of goats preparatory to embarking in the retail bread business.

A report has reached friends of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Ludden, who had expected to return to their home on El Bonito avenue after a year's absence, that they will go to Calexico instead to remain until about the first of January.

Relatives of Major J. J. Weiler, who makes his home with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Griffin on Acacia avenue, report that his condition remains about the same. His friend and comrade, Robert Taylor, is still with him as a nurse.

Mrs. Arthur W. Paine, a former resident of this city on South Central avenue, is in Glendale for the first time since she and her family moved to Berkeley where she is now living. She will be the guest this week of Mrs. Claire Van Etten on El Bonito street.

Five accidents in which 26 persons were hurt, six of them probably fatally, was Friday's gruesome record of auto accidents. The worst of these was in Cahuenga Pass when a motor bus loaded with 40 film actors was struck by a P. E. car and 16 of them severely hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pearce have just moved from 459 Milford street to 119 West Lexington to a home they have just purchased and where they are now in the process of getting settled. They bought from Mr. Melford, and expect to keep the same telephone number.

Comrade U. L. Emick of 229 South Maryland is going east to Grand Army National Encampment in Ohio, but will first transfer his residence to Los Angeles, where he and Mrs. Emick will establish themselves at 2928 South Harvard street. He is planning to go east on the official train September 4th.

The pulpit of Rev. O. P. Rider, pastor of the Tropic Presbyterian Church, was occupied Sunday morning by Rev. Keith L. Brooks, who is the editor of "The King's Business," a monthly published at the Bible Institute in Los Angeles. He took for his text the 23d and 24th verses of the 139th Psalm, "Search and try me and lead me in the way everlasting." He is an eloquent speaker and his address was much enjoyed.

Henry N. Sayre, of 914 South Central avenue, who had the misfortune to sprain his ankle a while ago, has completely recovered from his disability. He and Mrs. Sayre report that recent letters from their daughter Viola indicate that she is spending a very delightful vacation in Minneapolis; that she will return to her studio in Cleveland about the first of September to remain there until she comes to Glendale the middle of January.

ble, and do not make it their study and rule of life as they should. The home was established by God to hold His children together, that he might save them as families.

"He who would follow Christ must have Christ abiding in him. He cannot communicate what he has not received. The disciples of old might have repeated Christ's words, spoken fluently of His doctrines, but unless they possessed Christlike meekness and love they were not truly confessing Him. Many deny Christ by indulgence in sinful pleasures, by shirking life's burdens, by justifying self, by borrowing trouble, and by dwelling in spiritual darkness. By their works they show that Christ is not in them.

"We are living in the half past eleven hour of this world's history, and just as the destroying angel passed over Egypt at midnight, so the destroyer is almost ready to pass over this old world. Much as we would turn from the situation, or hide our eyes from it, we cannot ignore the facts. Fathers and mothers, where are your boys and your girls? Are they in your homes? Are they gathered about you in service to the Christ? Has your life been such that your boy or girl can say of you, 'where you go, I will go too'?"

"Some parents have not realized the responsibilities resting upon them, and have neglected the religious education of their children. A man's boy is largely the reflection of himself. A girl is largely the reflection of her mother. We have been made as God to our children, and much is required of us. The Creator cannot pass lightly by the influence we have had upon them."

Elder J. W. Christian, president of the Pacific Union Conference, spoke to a large audience at the campground Saturday. He said ministers are clear before God only when they preach the whole counsel of God, giving to their hearers not only what pleases them or what pleases the people, but the Word God has given. He said the church is God's city of refuge.

Prof. W. W. Ruble, of Glendale, young people's secretary, spoke before a large meeting of young people Saturday afternoon. He said "sin is the foundation of every failure no matter whether the individual who fails is a professing Christian or not. The moral man who succeeds does so because he weaves Christian principles into his work or business. But he must accept the Saviour if he is ever saved.

"Sin not only deceives but hardens the heart. It never gives the pleasure which it promises, and like the gambler, the individual tries it again expecting to gain some expected pleasure, which eludes the grasp. Sin never satisfies. God compares it to the leprosy. You can't quarantine yourself away from it. The only way to get rid of it is to let Jesus Christ create in you a new heart.

Creek for the aqueduct. He told them there are lots of deer on the Cottonwood flats; that when some of the rangers went back there last winter during the deep snow, they counted 235 deer in one bunch west of Long Pine. To get them it means packing in fifteen to twenty-five miles.

They found the water low in Long Valley and men were being employed to lower the outlets to the lakes to give them water as needed, to flood their meadows and furnish feed for stock. The flood was carefully watched however, and a dam thrown across when it got to coming too fast. Were it not for this the creeks would be nearly dry by now. At Convict Lake three men are employed to lower the lake and keep a supply flowing all the time in the creek; but there is no occasion for anxiety because Long Valley is the only place where it is being done and the lakes are so large and deep with such a constant flow into them that the "lowering" is not at all noticeable. Convict Lake, Mr. Webster says, is probably two to three hundred feet deep, and is without doubt a canyon which has been blocked at some time by a land slide and thus converted into a reservoir. Silver Lake is of the same sort while Grant Lake is a reservoir which has been artificially made by throwing a dam across the canyon.

Mr. Webster recommends the tour as a very nice camping excursion, but advises prospective joy seekers to go when they can take more time than he did, for it took two and one-half days to reach Silver Lake and as many to come back. The trip across the Mojave Desert should be made at night, he says. They spent part of one day crossing it when the mercury went to 120 degrees in the shade and they registered a vow to never do it again. The stretch between Elizabeth Lake and Olancha is the hard part. When you have reached Olancha you are at an elevation of 4000 feet and do not feel the heat so much, and you are then about 200 miles on your way, "but every mile is a mile, and you need to have your engine and tires in first-class condition," Mr. Webster says, "because after you leave Bishop you leave all opportunities to get supplies except oil and gasoline which are to be had at the Mammoth Lake Station. It is a 75-mile trip and some of the time you cannot make more than ten or twelve miles an hour. Our average speed after leaving Little Lake was about 15 miles an hour for the trip.

"From Long Valley you start up the grade and ascend to an elevation of 7000 feet and you cannot make that seven-mile grade on high. It is from 7 to 15 per cent. all the way and some cars would have to make it in low."

CONDITIONS IN NORTH

Royal Flyers. Lieutenant Cole was formerly with Mr. Lappin in Hollywood and was in active service in France for a year. He was shot down on October 16th of last year and has just recently been sent home from England. They have planned on enlarging the Anaheim Dye Works and I think they will succeed in doing so.

I came up by boat and had one wonderful trip. The ocean was so smooth that it looked like glass. Was not seasick and both Hannah and I ate three meals daily.

It seemed so good to get up here where everything is so green. It has been ideal weather so far—not too cold nor too hot, and only one light "Oregon Mist."

I have already gained two and one-half pounds and expect to stay here for at least two months.

Wages are very good here, but living expenses are very high, much higher than in the South. On September 1st all apartment houses raise their rent 20 per cent. and we have already received our notice. And, too, each apartment must pay their telephone bill. It is almost impossible to secure desirable living quarters for this is a bustling city.

As I have taken up so much space, I will send best wishes to all my old friends and only wish you could be here too.

FLORENCE S. LAPPIN.

"We need men who, like Daniel, will stand for the right though the heavens fall. If we will take the life of Christ as our standard, and ask God to keep our minds stayed upon Him, and to give us the will to do that which is right, He will keep us from the corruption of sin, and will give us success in the Christian life, and in all we do. Were it not for a few righteous people in this world which has become like Sodom and Gomorrah for wickedness, the world would ere this have been destroyed for its corruption. But God holds the winds of destruction a little longer, that a few more honest souls may be garnered in and be saved in His eternal kingdom."
